Dear Friends,

A heartfelt thanks to all for the success of our 26th Texas Winds season, especially to our donors. You have shared the joys of music and warmth of fellowship with those who are ill, lonely or distressed. These are just a few of the responses we've received this year.

"Awesome! The fact that your programs are available to those who can no longer go out to concerts is so beneficial to their quality of life." ~ Jan Jordan, Chambrel at Club Hill

"The audience responded to "Anything You Can Do" with laughter and giggles." ~ Pamela J. Robinson, Bachman Therapeutic Rec. Center

"The music was excellent and the seniors were amazed, joyful and felt like they were back in time." ~ Ralph Gordon, Goodbar Senior Center

"The clients were enthralled by every note played. This was shown by a standing ovation after each selection." ~ Bobbie Hamilton, Mosaic

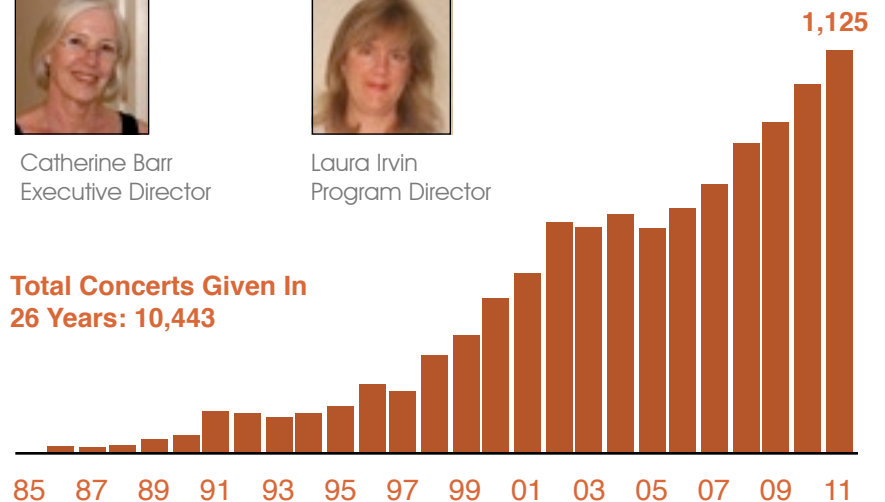

We look forward to another strong season in 2011-12 and hope that you will join us in making it a success!

Play It Again, Tom!

"Fiddlin' Man" Tom Demer performs for nursing home residents

"My regrets go out to all the residents who missed the Texas Winds concert on February 8th. You may never know how much fun it is just to fiddle away your time. Tom Demer, who entertained us, is a violist with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra; however, his favorite instrument is the fiddle. He was the best I have ever heard and that has meaning coming from an 83-year old music lover. Even if you dislike classical music you would have loved his program; even if you dislike the fiddle you would have loved his program and if you appreciate real natural talent you would have really loved his program. I think everyone who heard him felt that they had a $500.00 concert seat. Just remember his name and don't ever miss another opportunity to enjoy this extremely talented musician and entertainer. Thank you Texas Winds!"

“Just for You” Concerts

Having a party, or don't know what to give your loved one for their birthday or special holiday? Contact Texas Winds to find out about our “Just for You” concerts.

Dear Cathy,

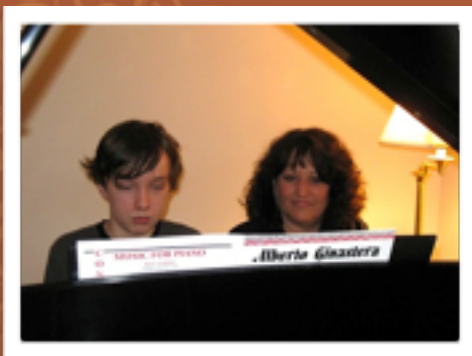

“As you know, I have resided in a nursing facility for over thirty years. I have been honored with numerous "Just for You" concerts, and I have felt uplifted by each musician and their performances. This morning I am still smiling as I think of how wonderful it was to have a musical Valentine's gift. Thank you, thank you, thank you!” ~ Jane

Hi, Victor,

“I just talked to Mom and she so appreciated and enjoyed your playing. I know it meant a lot to her. I am happy that I finally thought of a gift for her that was something she could really enjoy. These last couple of years have been quite an upheaval and change for her and she manages to find small pleasures in her daily existence. She hasn't been out and about in the world in almost two years - other than to be in the ER or ICU at the hospital. So, I'm glad for her to have a bit of cheer that is a very special treat. Anyway, thanks again for your time and talents and for giving her an experience that brought so much pleasure. Otherwise, her days pretty much run together - one being not much different than the next.” ~ All the best, Jan
